J. M. HITT, LIBRARIAN

Replying to yours of _____

OLYMPIA, WASH.

November 8, 1923

Librarian
Edmonds, Wash.

Dear Librarian:

The blanks which your library has used for many years in making annual reports to this department are so similar to the enclosed one, that the change will not be difficult.

An effort is being made to secure absolute uniformity in library reports all over the United States. This is done with the view to comparative results, and the enclosed blank is the form adopted by the American Library Association.

Please make this report for the calendar year 1923, and have it returned to this office as soon as possible after January 1. It is sent you early that you may gather material suitable for its use. If every item is not filled out, please either estimate it, and indicate it with a question mark, or else, draw a line through the blank showing that it has not been overlooked.

A summary of all the reports will be made up and sent you about February 1.

Please keep one copy of your report for reference next year. I am enclosing a self addressed label, which you may use in returning the report.

Very respectfully yours,

J. M. HITT,
State Librarian.

The Gift Ideal--For the Child

The magazine for children of 3 to 12 years of age. No better magazine at twice the money.

Contains stories of every description that a child loves best,--fairy tales, fables, stories of real and make believe children, nature stories that instill a love for nature, picture guessing stories, animal stories, etc,--things to do and things to make, new games to play, a letter bag of the children's own letters,--in short anything a real children's magazine should have.

Highly Recommended By Teachers Everywhere

A year of joyful memory of your thoughtfulness at a minimum cost to you. No other gift will last so long, give so much pleasure or have such a beneficial effect upon a child. Little Folks is a magazine with the highest editorial ideals, based on 25 years experience of continued publication. It does more than amuse the child, it teaches the best American ideals in a way that unconsciously impresses its readers in a permanent, lasting and yet pleasing manner.

J. M. HITT, LIBRARIAN

Replying to yours of _____

OLYMPIA, WASH.

July 11, 1923

Dear Librarian:

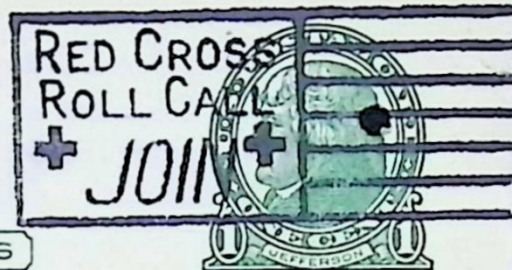

There has been for some time objection to the annual report made to this library by the Public Libraries, because it necessitates two reports each year; the City Law requiring a report the first of January and this report coming the first of July. A special effort has been made to make library reports all over the country uniform, and the dates nearly always have been January 1. Some of the libraries insist in reporting only as of January 1, which makes our reports in a measure inconsistent. It has been, therefore, decided to change the form of our reports to that of the American Library Association in order that all report in the United State might be uniform. Since the new form calls for a January date, it has been finally decided by the State Library Committee to change to December 31 the requirement of reporting to this library.

N.B. - You will, therefore, not receive the blank this time, but you will receive the American Library Association form in December and be asked to report on the year of 1923. This will be a copy largely of the report to your city on the matters of finances. In the matter of circulation and book supply you will cumulate from January to December. This will make a gap in our files of reports from July to December 1922. In the report the new A. L. A. form makes much of pamphlet stock and circulation; also, on the stock and circulation of music, photographs, and clippings. Otherwise, I think you will find no difficulty in using the new form. It will be sent you about December 1, giving you plenty of time to ascertain the unusual facts.

Very respectfully yours,

J. M. HITT,
State Librarian.

Dear Madam:

Your remittance for a year's subscription to THE FLOWER
GROWER for the Edmonds Public Library is to hand and we have same entered accordingly, and I am acknowledging receipt of your remittance as requested.

I am glad to know that your people appreciate THE FLOWER
GROWER and hope its future will continue to merit their approval.

Very truly yours,

Dear Customer,

I have built up my business - in other words won your good-will - by handling your orders promptly, giving you the lowest prices and calling the best magazines to your attention.

That last is why I am mentioning to you, CHILD LIFE - The Children's Own Magazine. This is truly a most fascinating collection of stories, games and things-to-do. It is so jolly and full of fun each month that children love it and yet, so full of fine educational and character building material that teachers use it.

If you have children between 3 and 13 or if you have young friends, I know they will adore CHILD LIFE. It makes a wonderful Christmas gift and I have a special Santa Claus gift card that I'll mail for you. CHILD LIFE is $3.00 a year. But as you have just now placed your magazine order I can extend to you the special club price of $2.50 if I receive your order within the next ten days. May I hear from you?

Sincerely yours,

ARTHUR T. WHITE
